WHO'S WHO

---

Cate Alixas Townfish 3, Gary*

Cate is excited to be back for her fourth performance with the Favarh Players. She loves this Favarh team forever. Cate has been working as an office assistant for four years at Mintz and Hoke, advertising agency. Cate loves to choreograph and dance at Terpsichore Dance Company. When Cate is not working or dancing, she spends time with her family, friends, boyfriend Andrew, basset hound Fiona, and her sisters and their boyfriends.

Robin Batchelder as Sardines/Electric Skates

Robin is very excited that this is her 3rd play with the Favarh Players. She previously was cast as a giraffe in The Lion King Jr. & the opening merchant in Aladdin. In Robin's free time she enjoys spending time with her cart, Birdy & assembling LEGO sets. She also enjoys playing basketball for Special Olympics. Robin was awarded the Eunice Kennedy Shriver award which is awarded to an athlete that embodies the true spirit of Special Olympics. She is now a member of The Special Olympics Hall of Fame. She would like to thank all of her friends & family, especially her Mom, for without them none of this would be possible.

Brandon Biancaas Ensemble*

Brandon is from Bristol, CT. This is his third year with the Favarh Players, previously performing in Aladdin Jr. and Lion King Jr. In addition to theatre, Brandon is a part of the Favarh GSE program and the Favarh Thrift Crew, and is also involved with Special Olympics Track, Basketball, Soccer, Softball, Bowling and Skiing, as well as the Baseball and Basketball Challenger Leagues and Bristol Parks and Recreation Swimming. In addition to his plethora of activities, Brandon enjoys dancing and taking long walks with his family. He also enjoys spending time with his friends, and beating his twin sister at Mario Kart!

Jaymie Bianca

as Squidward

Jaymie is from Bristol, CT. This is her second year performing with Favarh Players. She previously appeared in Lion King Jr. and is excited for her first principal role as Squidward! Jaymie has been baton twirling and dancing competitively since the age of three, and currently teaches adaptive baton-twirling classes at Favarh. She is a graduate of Trinity College with degrees in Educational Studies, English, and Human Rights. She also starred in many Trinity productions, including Macbeth, and shows with the New Beginnings Performing Arts group, which is a collaboration between Trinity students and women recently released from prison. Jaymie is currently a middle school teacher, and enjoys spending time with family and friends, reading, writing, and operating her nonprofit OpportunAbility with her mom.

Olivia Bonilla-Cruz

as Sandy

This is Vi's second season participating with the Favarh Players and she is very excited to be part of SpongeBob the Musical. She has been in several productions at Connecticut Family Theatre. She has played the Queen in Cinderella, Sandy in SpongeBob, and Sebastian in the Little Mermaid. Vi would like to thank everyone who helped this year and she hopes that everyone enjoys the show as much as they have!

Dante Bontatibus as Sardines/Electric Skates

Dante is thrilled to be performing in his third season with the Favarh Players. He has been in a variety of other theater productions with the Act One Players and SHS Unified Theatre. He loves to dance, sing and write lyrics. Dante also plays hockey with the CT Chasers and loves bowling, and playing basketball and golf with the Special Olympics.

WHO'S WHO

---

Lydia Borgioas Karen*

This is Lydia's 9th season with the Favarh Players. She loves music directing for the group and also loves joining them on stage. Lydia lives in Middletown, CT and looks forward to Tuesday nights every week for rehearsal. She can't wait for the next show!

Deb Bruceas Ensemble*

This is Deb's tenth performance with the Favarh Players. Her favorite show so far has been Beauty and the Beast. When she is not doing theater, Deb works at the ShopRite in Canton making sure the place doesn't fall apart. Deb likes watching movies and listening to CDs in her spare time. She wants to thank Lori for her patience and dedication to the Favarh Players.

If your child's pre-K – 6th grade public-school experience isn't supporting their needs, you don't have to tackle the solutions alone. I help families like yours understand their student's educational rights under IDEA, and will work with you and your school district to ensure those rights are upheld. Being a kid is hard, but getting a fair education doesn't have to be.

ABOUT THE FAVARH PLAYERS

Prepare to be enchanted as The Favarh Players, an inclusive theater group featuring people with and without disabilities, take center stage to present The SpongeBob Musical.

The unified performance promises an extraordinary experience filled with heartwarming melodies, captivating performances, and the magic of theater. The show features an ensemble of 40 actors, hailing from two esteemed nonprofit organizations: Favarh - The Arc of the Farmington Valley and Connecticut Family Theater of West Hartford. In its impressive 10th season, The Favarh Players, under the dynamic leadership of director Lori Solak, founder of Connecticut Family Theater Inc., proudly adheres to the motto, "No Boundaries. Just Possibilities." This year's production showcases the incredible talent and diversity within the ensemble, bringing together actors from Favarh individuals with disabilities, Connecticut Family Theatre members, and the wider public.

Rehearsing with dedication from October to March each year, the actors gather one night a week, investing 2.5 hours in each rehearsal to perfect their craft. Past performances have left sold-out audiences spellbound with memorable renditions of Shrek, Elf, Wizard of Oz, Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin Jr., and The Lion King, Jr.

ABOUT FAVARH

Favarh was founded in 1958 by eight local families, all wanting a better life for their children with intellectual disabilities.

Today, Favarh supports more than 350 youths, adults, seniors, and families throughout the Farmington Valley area and beyond.

Our mission: To Help Each Person Achieve Their Personal Best.

Favarh Players is a troupe of actors with and without disabilities that began performing in 2008. In this inclusive model, actors practice and perform together and along the way develop confidence, focus, and lasting friendships. The magic happens both on stage and off, providing powerful, life-altering experiences for all our actors and their audiences.

Each year, Favarh Players adds a few new members to the cast. If interested, please fill out an interest form at favarh.org/theater.

Our theater program relies on the financial support of good people like you who believe in supporting the arts and the artists.
